FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002 LB 1105

find...find the particular subject areas and rules and statutes and that's...that's what it's about--organization and ease of practice and for the consumers and people that deal with the Public Service Commission.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. Senator, are there any public policy matters of consequence that are represented, in your opinion, in this set of amendments?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR BROMM: Senator...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Beutler, I'm sorry, you have spoken three times, Senator Beutler. Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Beutler, there are no public policy changes contained in this amendment or in the recodification that this amendment is being attached to, and I say that and I'm trusting to a large extent the Public Service Commission, all of the lawyers in the industry that have been involved in the rewrite process and their opinions and Legal Counsel for the committee. I can't say that I have intimately read every line and concluded that, but I'm relying on Counsel and on the committee that worked for a long time on this, and so I don't believe there are any public policy changes. If there are, they're inadvertent and we'll come back and fix them if there are, but I don't think there are. And, Mr. President, if Senator Beutler has a question or would like any of my time, I would yield it to him.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler, about...about one minute is gone of the five.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Cudaback, thank you. Senator Bromm, thank you. I just wanted to get a sense of what's in the amendment and how it works. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Bromm and Senator Beutler. Senator, there are no further lights on. Senator Bromm, you're
